Emergency Medical Services and Ebola: Are We Ready?

Tuesday, November 11, 2014
8:30 a.m. - Noon
$40.00 per person (RAFT Members)
$60.00 per person (Non-Members)
Continental Breakfast Included

Presentations
Norman Seals
Assistant Chief of Emergency Medical Services
Dallas (Texas) Fire-Rescue Department
Ebola in Dallas: Lessons Learned
-------
Donald Hudson
Emergency Medical Services Lieutenant and Liaison for the Bureau of EMS and Safety Command
Fire Department New York
Ebola in New York City: Lessons Learned
-------
Gerald Blackburn, D.O.
Infectious Disease Physician
Botsford Hospital
Understanding Ebola and the Latest Recommendations
-------
Shadd Whitehead
Fire Chief
Livonia (Michigan) Fire Rescue
Hazardous Materials Teams and Response to Ebola Incidents

Location
William Costick Activities Center
28600 Eleven Mile Road
Farmington Hills, Michigan 48336

RAFT Members: You also have the opportunity to view this seminar via the video conferencing system. There is no charge if you send two people to the seminar. If you’re not sending anyone, then the cost to view is $60.00

Register Online Now At: www.raft911.org